ViewPoint

A new platform for market intelligence and trading.

ViewPoint is our sophisticated market intelligence and trading platform bringing new functionality and efficiencies to adviser trading. In collaboration with market leader IRESS, we've designed the web-based interface from the ground up. High-volume trading advisers can now enjoy a customisable workspace anytime, anywhere.

Direct trading capability

Quick trade

Save time with integrated buy and sell functions, accessible from a range of screens and stock contexts.

Conditional orders

Automate your order strategies based on conditional criteria, including exit and entry points.

Customisable brokerage

Dial up or dial down brokerage for each client.

Order pad

View all orders and conditional orders on an easy to use screen.

Advanced charting tools

Market data in real time

Monitor ASX-listed securities and take opportunities as soon as they arise, including Australian shares, warrants, ETFs and ETOs.

Charting

Use chart views to get a visual representation of market depth.

Live Portfolios

Monitor the live valuation of a portfolio including a live visual of the holdings.
