I/We authorise the following:

1. AUSIEX to verify the details of the bank account mentioned in this form with my/our Financial Institution;
2. The Financial Institution to release information allowing AUSIEX to verify the account details mentioned in this form.

4. Risk Disclosure Statement

The risks involved with investment in International Securities differ significantly from investment in securities quoted on the regulated stock exchange for Australian shares – the ASX Limited.

This Risk Disclosure Statement does not disclose all of the risks associated with investment in International Securities. It should not be relied upon as a complete explanation of the risks involved. If you need further explanation regarding investment in international markets, you should seek appropriate independent professional advice. Below is an example that seeks to demonstrate the share trading risks when trading in International Securities. This example is for illustrative purposes only and should not be considered advice.

Example: Foreign Currency Risk

Your International Securities will be denominated in a currency other than Australian dollars.

- You buy 100 shares at US$50 per share for a total value of US$5,000.
- You purchase US$5,000 at the rate of A$/US$0.60 and your initial investment cost is A$8,333.33.
- If the A$/US$ strengthens to the rate of A$/US$0.70, the value of your investment falls to A$7,142.86 assuming no change in the price of the shares.
- If the A$/US$ weakens to the rate of A$/US$0.50, the value of your investment rises to A$10,000 assuming no change in the price of the shares.

You can see from this example that as the A$ strengthens against US$, the A$ value of your US shares will fall. Of course the reverse applies – as the A$ weakens against US$, the A$ value of your US shares will rise. Please note that this example is exclusive of brokerage, exchange fees, and any other fees and charges that may apply.

International Custodian

Your International Securities will be held in the custody of an International Custodian, appointed by us as set out in the International Markets Trading Terms and Conditions. Securities in the custody of an International Custodian may be subject to risk arising from change to the political, legal, regulatory and/or the commercial environment of the country of the International Custodian or overseas stock exchange(s) that the securities are listed on.

Whilst we will use reasonable care in selecting International Custodians, we shall not be liable for any losses incurred by you by reason of any act, omission, fraud or negligence of any International Custodian in relation to the holding of or dealing with your International Securities.

POLITICAL AND REGULATORY RISK

Trading conditions and your ability to buy and sell securities in a foreign market may be affected by political risk and regulatory risk in the country in which the overseas market operates. Political risk may include sudden changes in laws and regulations imposed by the government, sometimes on short notice, and sometimes on a temporary basis. Regulatory risk is the risk that standards of conduct in the overseas market may differ from standards of disclosure and conduct that apply to securities quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange and Cboe Australia Pty Ltd. For example, risks will be generally higher where companies are able to list on a foreign market with less initial and ongoing regulatory requirements than on the Australian Exchanges. As a result, securities traded on such a foreign market may be susceptible to high volatility and there are no assurances that there will be a liquid market for your investments.

Australia, as a member state of the United Nations, is obliged to implement United Nations Security Council sanctions. Australia also may be required to implement other international sanctions and sometimes imposes unilateral sanctions. Sanctions can cover various subject matters including financial restrictions. Consequently, AUSIEX may be prohibited from dealing with certain persons or entities.

This means that if AUSIEX is aware that you are a Proscribed Person or entity, or associates of, then AUSIEX may be required to suspend, cancel or refuse you services or close or terminate any account, facility, transaction, arrangement or agreement with you. We may also be required to freeze your assets. You could incur significant costs as a result of these actions.

Taxation

AUSIEX does not provide taxation advice.

We recommend you obtain professional taxation advice to evaluate whether an investment in International Securities is appropriate to your particular financial circumstances and objectives.

In Summary

You and your advisers should be aware of the following additional acknowledgements you are making by signing this risk statement. You acknowledge:

- a. that investing in International Securities carries risks, including but not limited to:
 - i. gains from security price movements can be more than off-set by adverse foreign exchange movements;
 - ii. intra-day price movements on international security and currency exchanges can be relatively volatile;
 - iii. strong past performances are not necessarily indicative of future performance;
 - iv. taxation implications can be different from investing in Australian securities and may vary depending on your individual circumstances;
- b. that you accept without limitations all risk associated with investing in International Securities and the holding of your International Securities by an International Custodian.
- c. that AUSIEX does not give financial advice, make personal securities recommendations or provide any foreign exchange or taxation advice, and that it is your own responsibility to assess and evaluate proposed transactions in International Securities in the light of your financial situation, investment objectives and particular needs; and
